We have recently received a number of letters from the "Liberator," containing information of considerable interest. One of these is a letter from the Editor, who says that the "Liberator" is now in a flourishing condition, and that the number of subscribers is increasing rapidly. He also states that the "Liberator" is now printing on the new press, and that the quality of the paper is much improved. He adds that the "Liberator" is now in a position to print more copies than ever before, and that the price of a subscription will be reduced. The Editor also states that the "Liberator" is now printing a considerable number of advertisements, and that the subscribers will be enabled to buy goods at a lower price than ever before. He adds that the "Liberator" is now printing a number of articles on politics, and that the subscribers will be able to read the latest news from the United States and Europe.

The following is an extract from a letter sent by Mr. J. H. S., a subscriber of the "Liberator," who says that he has been a subscriber for many years, and that he is pleased with the quality of the paper. He also states that he is pleased with the price of the subscription, and that he is pleased with the variety of articles that are printed. He adds that he is pleased with the advertisements that are printed, and that he is pleased with the news that is printed. He says that he is pleased with the "Liberator," and that he recommends it to all his friends.

The following is an extract from a letter sent by Mr. J. H. S., a subscriber of the "Liberator," who says that he has been a subscriber for many years, and that he is pleased with the quality of the paper. He also states that he is pleased with the price of the subscription, and that he is pleased with the variety of articles that are printed. He adds that he is pleased with the advertisements that are printed, and that he is pleased with the news that is printed. He says that he is pleased with the "Liberator," and that he recommends it to all his friends.