

JANUARY 1, 1847. WHOLE NO. 834.

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

But we do not forget that a million and a half of our fellow-men are in the hands of the slave. We sympathize cannot reach them; they are dumb. We cannot see them; they are dumb. We cannot hear their voices. There is among you a noble band of women, who are the true benefactors of the race. They are the temple of humanity,—whose cause is the cause of the whole human race. They are the benefactors of the world, who, with their unflinching, self-sacrificing zeal, and their untiring labors, have been the great light, that they may kindle in the glorious war of the world. They are the benefactors of the world, who, with their unflinching, self-sacrificing zeal, and their untiring labors, have been the great light, that they may kindle in the glorious war of the world. They are the benefactors of the world, who, with their unflinching, self-sacrificing zeal, and their untiring labors, have been the great light, that they may kindle in the glorious war of the world.

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

Resolved, That as the followers of the Prince of Peace, we are opposed to the barbarous practice of war—and, as a body, will use our influence in all who wish success to the Faneuil Bazaar, who have not yet exhausted their pecuniary resources to ensure that success, remember

DAY AND EVENING that it will remain open a very themselves accordingly. That fact, it realized has exceeded that of any previous but it is not so large as the emergence of the demand. The sales of this day greatly out the sum. The supply of useful and beautiful is still most attractive and abundant. We have not attempted to give any account of the dance of the Hall, or of the numerous entertainments because we know it will be prepared and enjoyed by one whose powers of description are to the great yet pleasing task. Among those who have addressed the occasion, I have the pleasure significantly, pictured down to evening, have been Wendell Phillips, James N. Buffum, Abby Leitch, Samuel May, James Freeman Clarke, W. Channing, Edmund Quincy, William L. Garrison. The thrilling address by the men of Edinburgh to the Women of the United States was read by Mrs. Foster, and eloquently and excited much curiosity as to the amount of the length of the roll of signatures. The second was read at the Worcester women's meeting on Sunday evening last, before a large audience, and with great effect.

valuable in its purpose and scope.

being deserving of a wide circulation. By the wing announcement in the last number, it appears that the volume, for the current year, is a valuable and uncommon attraction.

the next place, the paper is to be improved in external appearance. This will be done by using superior quality of paper, and the employment of a font of type.

In the third place, the internal quality and value of the Freeman is to be enhanced by able editorial assistance. The Committee have partly completed arrangements, which will secure to the editorial side of the paper, regularly weekly contributions to the literary merit and practical anti-slavery efforts. Although the adoption of these measures of improvement will add not less than 33 per cent. to the present cost of getting out the paper, there will be a decrease in the price of subscription. One half the increase in advance will still be the terms. Our only hope for means to meet the additional cost of our paper will be upon an increase in the number of subscribers, and our hopes in this respect are based upon the presumed willingness of those who subscribe to the paper, to make adequate efforts to add names to our list."

THE BOSTON ALMANAC. 1848. Published annually, for 1847, by Mr. S. S. Dickinson. The title is "Excelsior" is still his motto. It is a high praise to say that it is equal to any of the others; but it is really the best and most valuable; contains nearly 2000 pages, 40 of which are devoted to engravings of nearly all the Railroads diverging from Boston, including Long Island, with a comprehensive sketch of the various towns and villages in the line of these roads. It has also the most excellent map of this most crowded and important American cities. The business directory is full and complete. The chronicle of Great Britain

... during the year 1846, and also throughout the country, will be of considerable historical interest to a new generation. It appears that, with a population of only 120,000, there are published in Latin less than 76 newspapers; of these 15 are weekly! This number far exceeds, we believe, that published in London, with its two millions of inhabitants! This Almanac, with all its store of information, maps, &c., is still sold at the low rate of 6 cents.

New Work. Gould, Kendall and Lincoln, 25 Washington-street, have just published, in a very compact and neatly printed volume, 'The Free-born Earth: Contributions to Theological Science. By John Harris, D. D., author of the 'Great Truths'

Great Commission," "Mammon," &c. We have yet had time to examine it; but, from the same and great celebrity of Dr. Harris, we have no doubt is full of profound thought and vigorous reasoning.
To those who have read his other works, the announcement of the appearance of this work will amply suffice to induce them to become acquainted with its contents.

ANOTHER VERDICT. At the recent annual convention of the American Association of Physicians,
the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the self-styled Evangelical Alliance of the Christians of the World, which has been formed, and which is now in the process of organization, be and it is the duty of this Convention to disavow its existence, and to declare that it is not a Christian Alliance, and that it is not a Christian Alliance, and that it is not a Christian Alliance.

character of slaveholders, and the Free Church of Scotland, by its consenting to receive the money of slaveholders, for its religious uses, have proved themselves fit buttresses for the 'Belwairs of American Slavery,' and to be in one condemnation with the slaveholding and pro-slavery church of the U. S.

Resolved, That we heartily approve of the gent and unflattering course of our friends, G. Thayer, son, Frederick Douglass, and H. C. Wright, in their denunciation and exposure of these proslavery of British religionists, and the fidelity of their prompt anti-slavery testimony.

Resolved, That we cordially rejoice at the safe return of our beloved friend, W. Lloyd Garrison, from his mission to the British Islands, which we believe to be eminently beneficial to the anti-slavery cause, and the cause of universal humanity, and that we warmly welcome him back to the post he has so long occupied in the forefront of the anti-slavery

ANTI SLAVERY SPIRIT OF ENGLAND. The following advertisement, which appears in the South Carolina newspapers, strikingly exhibits the anti-slavery spirit which animates the people and government of England, and contains a strong rebuke to our boasted national liberty and equality:

NOTICE TO BRITISH SUBJECTS.—The following has received instructions to publish, for the information of all British subjects, that the Government have come to the determination of prohibiting all British functions, trading in, or supplying, any vessels, or persons, engaged in any slaveholding countries, from admittance in any slave ships.

states of deceased persons, and the deceased.
form part of the property of the deceased.
CHARLES DUNKIN WALK
H. B. M. Counsel for S. and S. Counsel
December 10, 1866.

READ AND PRESERVE!—We have devoted these columns of this page to the placing again on record the views of the leading democratic papers, opposing the annexation of Texas, before that crime of crimes was committed, and the bold avowal of Oakes and Upham, as Secretaries of State, and other Southern men, as to the real object of annexation, and the present war with Mexico.

[illegible][illegible]

APPEARS ON THE FRONTIS.
 The character of the character, but especially of the Bible, is now matter of deep interest to a venerable book, like every other, most part of enlightened, impartial investigation. The character of the character is now matter of deep interest to a venerable book, like every other, most part of enlightened, impartial investigation. The character of the character is now matter of deep interest to a venerable book, like every other, most part of enlightened, impartial investigation.

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

OFFERS HIS SERVICES AS A COPYIST, ACCOUNTANT AND COLLECTOR PARTICULAR attention given to preparing Forms of Agreements, Deeds, Mortgages, &c.

which express his efforts to relieve those, &c. &c.

He will also attend to the delivery of Crucial Questions, &c. such similar popular exercises.

On Tuesday, the 10th inst., he will deliver on Cornhill, up stairs, at the office of William B. Goodenough, at 12 o'clock, a discourse on the subject, "THE NEW TESTAMENT," which will meet with prompt and grateful attention.

TERMS: No charge.

Boston, Wednesday, 11th 1846.

BOOKS.

DELA MARSH, W. M., as Corbally, his last work, is Dr. Parker's Sermon on the Lord's Supper, &c. &c.

Dr. John B. Waterhouse, the Principles of Christianity, &c. &c.

Narrative of Frederick Douglass, &c. &c.

Journal of Benjamin Walker, &c. &c.

Dr. J. C. Lewis, and Arthur Clark, &c. &c.

Archy Moore, &c. &c.

Spurgeon's Work on the Unregenerated sinner, &c. &c.

Slavery, &c. &c.

Dr. W. C. Fox, on Forty-two Illustrations of the legal case, &c. &c.

Dr. A. C. Fairbank, on Deafblind Youth, &c. &c.

Anti-Slavery Almanacs and Liberty Bells, &c. &c.

Mr. Prince's New Work, on the authorities of the Bible, &c. &c.

Also, a general assortment of Anti-Slavery, &c. &c.

And other Books of a Refugee, &c. &c.

MOULDS OF THE TRUE WITNESS

Just received and for sale at 21 Cornhill, up stairs.
NUMBERS, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen and

[illegible]

J. GUNN, SURGEON DENTIST,
115 COURT (CORNER OF JEFFERY) STREET

[illegible]

are moulded to r, the finer parti-
of the month

[illegible]

Editor of the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal
Boston, Aug. 9.

[illegible]