THE WORDS OF STRENGTH.
There are three lessons I would write—
Three words—as with a burning pen,
In tracings of tetrnal light,
Upon the hearts of men.

Have Hope. Though clouds environ no And gladners hide her face in scorn, Put then the shadow from thy brow— No night but hath its morn.

Have Faith. Where'er thy bark is driven-The calm's disport, the tempest's mirth— Know this—God rules the hosts of Heaven, The habitants of earth.

Have Lose. Not love alone for one;
But man, as man, thy brother call,
And scatter, like the circling sun,
Thy charities on all.

Thus grave these lessons on thy soul— Hope, Faith and Love—and thou shalt fin Strength, when Life's surges rudest roll; Light, when thou else wert blind.

angal, when thou sies wert hind.

THE WILL OF GOD.

'Thy will be from in Earth, at it is in Human.
Oh, beautiful and bright hint would must be,
Where life is but the doing of Ged's will.
