Brutteous kirks in lowers are Ausminis
Hy mas of aweveat mantreley.
Brumny Winter now is rearing.
Round the realms of regions for,
And the Store May fixed yearing,
Lowers we in the despond exer.
Redomin Spring, in robers and roses,
And a there'er her firm repuese,
Blooming Housening green the ground.
Her and thed is made of Rowers.
And her food the frait abe strings.
Drichs the dow that deals the bower,
O'er he dream of allver argings.
Now she comes in heavily blushing,
Leviding forth her daughters fair,
White should be feeling springe,
Hastens by with other years?
Then comes without April, weeping,
Many a tide of tender greening.

Many a tide of tender tears.

Now in flowery fields retreating,
Soft she leads the unsiden May
Where the fleety floots are bleating,
And the abepherd loves to stay;
Or in sindy gardens tripping,
Where the binshing blossoms blood
life is the merry May be akupping
O'er her sister April's tomb

O'er her sister April's tomb
But, ah't soon thall Sammer, coming
With her suns and silver showers,
Bid gay Syring afar be reaming
From her bright and beautrous howe
And thus youth and beauty blooming,
Brilliant seem but for a day;
Wrinkled age then follows, dooming
Them to perish and decay.

THE AMERICAN SLAVE-SHIP. No breeze the dark pine-wood can we lo you proud country of the free, But fans the bosom of a slave,—Slave, of the 'Sons of Liberty!'

Though brightly foams the feathery spray
A gloom is on the aunny sea;
For the Pirate Slave-Ship wings her way,
Manned by the Sona of Liberty!

The stars and stripes are at her mast, But crimson must their shadow be, For the shark hath tracked her as she pi And hailed the 'Sons of Liberty!'

Look ye to Washington's lone grave, And blush, the human eye may see The turf polluted by a Slave, That shrouds the 'Son of Liberty!'
