From the London Intelligencer
ON THE RECENT POLITICAL SCANDAL
IN REFERENCE TO THE AMERICAN ELECTIONS.

THE LIBERATOR.
BOSTON, JULY 14, 1847.

[Article on political events in the United States.]

LIFE OF HIRAM LIVINGSTON.

The life of Mr. Hiram Livingston, who was recently buried in New York, was a model of piety and charity, and a contrast to the excesses of the times in which he lived. He was a man of great learning and ability, and a distinguished figure in the society of his day. His death was a great loss to the country, and his memory will be preserved in the annals of American literature.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE ARCHBISHOP.

The death of the venerable Archbishop of Canterbury, who was recently buried in London, was a great loss to the country. He was a man of great learning and ability, and a distinguished figure in the society of his day. His memory will be preserved in the annals of English literature.
