LABOR-WORSHIP At ROWARD SOL. 'Laborare ast orare.' Brother, kneeling list and early, Eaver working-Praying ever-Up and labor---Work is prayer, Worship is in best endeavor.

Days and nights not given to a Turn thy life to sinful waste Be no laggard-be no sluggard Live not like a man disgrace

Live not like a man disgrad bee-Creation never resteth, Ever God creates anew; To be like Him', is to labor, To adore Him, is to Do.

To adore Him, is to Do. Do thy best, and do it bravely. Never flag with under scal,— This is writ as Scripture Holy : Thoo must either work or stell. None have mandate to be idle ; Folded hands are vilest erime; God's command is fabor-working. In thy youth and in thy prime.

For I preach the newest Gospel,-Work with Hand, and Work with Heart, Work-the Heavens are working always; Nature reads a text to Art.

Nature react a text to Art. Sons become the size of Systems Planets labor as they roll; and the law of their Celestial, Is a law within thy soul.

from thy nerves at each pulsation From the mystery of sleep,----comes a lesson---a monition, Whose significance is deep.

And an angel is thy guest. But the beauty worketh, striveth And is leading the apace To a Future, whose foundations God hath planted not in space.

Oh, the angel-How he helpeth ! Hinder hot by act of thine ; Lagging limbs, or heart aweary, Mar the work of the Divine-

Be a workman, O my brother ! Higher worship is there non-With its hymn of work-devolu-Nature is one choral tone.

As I read the newest Gospel,---When the spade divides the clod, When the ploughshare turns the furrow, Men in prayer strive with God.

Fray-" The early rain and latter, Lord, withhold not from our toil; Fructify the seed we scatter, With this worship, in the soil."

which this working, in the con-ay-' No slothful invocations From our lips our lives profane; Ye have kept the old commandme Taking not thy Name in vain.

* But they break the old commands And invoke thy Name with sin, Who, their idls hands uplifting, Uncarned good would gamer in.

Uncerned good would guter in-*We have new interpretation For the old instruction-ASK ; Best he asketh, most who tasketh Sincers, to perform his task.' As I read the newest Gospel, There is nothing fixed and still ; Constant only in motation Is God's law of Good and III.

Time was, when the tongue's petitions Wisely wresteld with the skies; When the flames, that curled on altars, Made accepted sacrifice.

Time was, when the crowd exa Priests above their fellow-mer But that worship is departed, And doth not return again.

And not not return egain Ever working,-ever doing,-Nature's law in Space and Time ;-See thou heed it in thy worship; Build thou up a Life sublime.

Build thou up a Lite such Ever Idleness blasphemeth In its prayer—in its praise How shall Heaven accept his Who is idle all his days?

Be a workman, O my brother ! Trust not worship to the tongue Pray with strenuous self-exertion ; Best by Hands are anthems sung Everywhere the earth is hallowed, Temples rise on every soil-In the forest-in the city-And their priest is Daily Toil.
