LIGHT.

BY EREKEER SELLOY.

God said, 'Let there be light!'

Grim darkness feld His might,'

An fled away;

Then, started seet, and mountains cold,

Shome forth, all bright in blue and gold,

And cried, 'The day?' in day!'

And cerea, 'The cay!' us day!'

'Hail, holy light,' exclaimed
The thunder clouds that finmed
O'er dainies white;
and lo! the rose in crimson dressed,
saned sweetly on the lily's breast,
And blushing, murmared, 'Light!

And blashing, mormaned, "Light Then were the Alylatic Born; Then wrote the Alylatic Born; Then from the embattled corn; Then floods of praise. Flowed over the sunny hills of store. No! from the mind of man!
From the swart artisan!
From God our sire!
Our souls have holy light within,
And every form of grief and sin
Shall see and feel its fire.

By earth, and hell, and heaven,
The shroud of soul is riven!
Mind, mind alone,
Is light, and hope, and life, and power!
Earth's deepest night from this blest hour.
The night of mind is gone.
