Selections.

From the Portland Newspaper.

THE UNION.

The friends of the Union must work ceaselessly. The friends of the Union must always believe that there is hope for its preservation. The friends of the Union must always believe that there is hope for its preservation. The friends of the Union must always believe that there is hope for its preservation.

THE CONSTITUTIONALITY OF SEPARATE SCHOOL LAWS.

The question is, whether the several States, or the United States, are entitled to regulate the system of public education in the United States? If the question is, whether the several States, or the United States, are entitled to regulate the system of public education in the United States? If the question is, whether the several States, or the United States, are entitled to regulate the system of public education in the United States? If the question is, whether the several States, or the United States, are entitled to regulate the system of public education in the United States?

CONSTITUTIONALITY OF SEPARATE SCHOOL LAWS.

The question is, whether the several States, or the United States, are entitled to regulate the system of public education in the United States? If the question is, whether the several States, or the United States, are entitled to regulate the system of public education in the United States? If the question is, whether the several States, or the United States, are entitled to regulate the system of public education in the United States? If the question is, whether the several States, or the United States, are entitled to regulate the system of public education in the United States?

CONSTITUTIONALITY OF SEPARATE SCHOOL LAWS.

The question is, whether the several States, or the United States, are entitled to regulate the system of public education in the United States? If the question is, whether the several States, or the United States, are entitled to regulate the system of public education in the United States? If the question is, whether the several States, or the United States, are entitled to regulate the system of public education in the United States? If the question is, whether the several States, or the United States, are entitled to regulate the system of public education in the United States?
PATERSON MASSACRE THE BOOMER AGAIN.

There is another letter from Judge Dorr, of Rhode Island, which is reached by the New York mail, containing information on the progress of the trial of the 'Boomer' case. The Judge expresses himself as having been in the court two or three times, and has been able to secure the services of a number of able attorneys. He says the cause is a very important one, and that it is expected to be decided in a few weeks. He adds that the case is deserving of careful consideration, and that he hopes the court will give it the attention it deserves. The Judge also states that he has been able to secure the services of a number of able attorneys, and that he hopes the court will give the case the attention it deserves.

PARKER INDIAN LEADERS.

The undersigned takes this method of acquainting the public with the fact that Mr. Charles Parker, of Indiana, and Mr. James R. Davis, of Ohio, are engaged in investigating the case of the Indian leaders. The undersigned states that Mr. Parker has been in the Indian country for a number of years, and has been a prominent leader among the Indians. He adds that Mr. Davis is a private citizen, and that he has been engaged in the Indian country for a number of years. The undersigned states that the case is of great importance, and that it is expected to be decided in a few weeks. He adds that the undersigned has been able to secure the services of a number of able attorneys, and that he hopes the court will give the case the attention it deserves.

EDUCATION REFORM.-S. A. ASRS.-The following is a communication from S. A. Asrs. to the Committee on Education, read at the last session of Congress:

To the Committee on Education, House of Representatives:

We have the honor to submit herewith a copy of the report of the American School Society, which is in the hands of the Committee, and which we earnestly recommend for your consideration. We feel that the report is of great importance, and that it is expected to be decided in a few weeks. We add that the undersigned has been able to secure the services of a number of able attorneys, and that he hopes the court will give the case the attention it deserves.

PARKER INDIAN LEADERS.

The undersigned takes this method of acquainting the public with the fact that Mr. Charles Parker, of Indiana, and Mr. James R. Davis, of Ohio, are engaged in investigating the case of the Indian leaders. The undersigned states that Mr. Parker has been in the Indian country for a number of years, and has been a prominent leader among the Indians. He adds that Mr. Davis is a private citizen, and that he has been engaged in the Indian country for a number of years. The undersigned states that the case is of great importance, and that it is expected to be decided in a few weeks. He adds that the undersigned has been able to secure the services of a number of able attorneys, and that he hopes the court will give the case the attention it deserves.

PARKER INDIAN LEADERS.

The undersigned takes this method of acquainting the public with the fact that Mr. Charles Parker, of Indiana, and Mr. James R. Davis, of Ohio, are engaged in investigating the case of the Indian leaders. The undersigned states that Mr. Parker has been in the Indian country for a number of years, and has been a prominent leader among the Indians. He adds that Mr. Davis is a private citizen, and that he has been engaged in the Indian country for a number of years. The undersigned states that the case is of great importance, and that it is expected to be decided in a few weeks. He adds that the undersigned has been able to secure the services of a number of able attorneys, and that he hopes the court will give the case the attention it deserves.
THE LIBERATOR.

VOL. XX. NO. 2.

EDITED AND PUBLISHED AT BROOKLINE, BY THE SOCIETY FOR THE SUPPRESSION OF SLAVERY IN THE UNITED STATES AND ITS TERRITORIES.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1855.

THE SOUTHERN LEAGUE.

The Annual meeting of the Southern Union was held at Richmond, Va., on the 1st of November, John R. Colvin, of Georgia, being elected President, and E. A. Covington, of Kentucky, Secretary.

The object of this body is to prepare the way for an anti-slavery organization in the South, and to promote the principles of the American Anti-Slavery Society.

The meeting was attended by a large and respectable number of gentlemen, and was unanimous in its resolution to adopt the principles of the American Anti-Slavery Society, and to aid in its work of abolition.

THE RIGHTS OF WOMAN.

Every woman is a woman, and should be treated as such. The rights of woman are as much as the rights of man, and should be respected and protected.

The abolition of slavery is not the only object of the American Anti-Slavery Society. It is also engaged in the work of reforming the laws, and in the promotion of the welfare of the people.

THE GOOD LIFE—THE LOUSY LIFE.

It is our duty to live a good life. The world is full of suffering and sorrow. We should seek to alleviate the suffering of others, and to promote the welfare of all.

THE SABBATH.

The Sabbath is a day of rest and recreation. It is a day when we should attend to our religious duties, and when we should refrain from all worldly cares.

THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY IN THE UNITED STATES.

The abolition of slavery in the United States is a great and noble work. It is a work that will bring lasting peace and happiness to the people of this country.

THE LIBERATOR.

VOL. XX. NO. 2.

EDITED AND PUBLISHED AT BROOKLINE, BY THE SOCIETY FOR THE SUPPRESSION OF SLAVERY IN THE UNITED STATES AND ITS TERRITORIES.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1855.

THE SOUTHERN LEAGUE.

The Annual meeting of the Southern Union was held at Richmond, Va., on the 1st of November, John R. Colvin, of Georgia, being elected President, and E. A. Covington, of Kentucky, Secretary.

The object of this body is to prepare the way for an anti-slavery organization in the South, and to promote the principles of the American Anti-Slavery Society.

The meeting was attended by a large and respectable number of gentlemen, and was unanimous in its resolution to adopt the principles of the American Anti-Slavery Society, and to aid in its work of abolition.

THE RIGHTS OF WOMAN.

Every woman is a woman, and should be treated as such. The rights of woman are as much as the rights of man, and should be respected and protected.

The abolition of slavery is not the only object of the American Anti-Slavery Society. It is also engaged in the work of reforming the laws, and in the promotion of the welfare of the people.

THE GOOD LIFE—THE LOUSY LIFE.

It is our duty to live a good life. The world is full of suffering and sorrow. We should seek to alleviate the suffering of others, and to promote the welfare of all.

THE SABBATH.

The Sabbath is a day of rest and recreation. It is a day when we should attend to our religious duties, and when we should refrain from all worldly cares.

THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY IN THE UNITED STATES.

The abolition of slavery in the United States is a great and noble work. It is a work that will bring lasting peace and happiness to the people of this country.