Refuge of Oppression

THE UNION TRAINING MIL. RESERVE. From the War Office, April 2, 1865.-The War Department is about to inaugurate a system of training the military reserve forces of the United States, to be known as the Union Training Militia. The object of this system is to prepare the reserve forces for active service in case of war, by organizing them into brigades, and training them in drill and discipline. The system will be carried out by the appointment of officers and non-commissioned officers as drill instructors, who will be furnished with a detailed plan of instruction, and will be required to give a certain number of drills each week. The reserve forces will be divided into brigades, each consisting of a certain number of companies, and will be trained together. The system will be carried out by the appointment of officers and non-commissioned officers as drill instructors, who will be furnished with a detailed plan of instruction, and will be required to give a certain number of drills each week. The reserve forces will be divided into brigades, each consisting of a certain number of companies, and will be trained together.

THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD. Concerning a certain Negro girl, about 10 years of age, who is supposed to have been kidnapped from her parents, and is now living in the Western States. The reward is offered by Mr. B. S. Smith, of Philadelphia.

WILLIAM HENRY BURR. From the New York Tribune, April 2, 1865.-William Henry Burr, the famous abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.

LEWIS BURNETT. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-Lewis Burnett, the well-known abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.

WILLIAM A. STRATTON. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-William A. Stratton, the well-known abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.

BY JOHN Q. GIBSON. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-John Q. Gibson, the well-known abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.

ESSEX NEWSPAPER. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-The Essex newspaper, published in New York, is now in circulation, and is published weekly.

WILLIAM H. CALDWELL. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-William H. Caldwell, the well-known abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.

ESSEX NEWSPAPER. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-The Essex newspaper, published in New York, is now in circulation, and is published weekly.

WILLIAM H. CALDWELL. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-William H. Caldwell, the well-known abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.

ESSEX NEWSPAPER. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-The Essex newspaper, published in New York, is now in circulation, and is published weekly.

WILLIAM H. CALDWELL. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-William H. Caldwell, the well-known abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.

ESSEX NEWSPAPER. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-The Essex newspaper, published in New York, is now in circulation, and is published weekly.

WILLIAM H. CALDWELL. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-William H. Caldwell, the well-known abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.

ESSEX NEWSPAPER. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-The Essex newspaper, published in New York, is now in circulation, and is published weekly.

WILLIAM H. CALDWELL. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-William H. Caldwell, the well-known abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.

ESSEX NEWSPAPER. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-The Essex newspaper, published in New York, is now in circulation, and is published weekly.

WILLIAM H. CALDWELL. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-William H. Caldwell, the well-known abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.

ESSEX NEWSPAPER. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-The Essex newspaper, published in New York, is now in circulation, and is published weekly.

WILLIAM H. CALDWELL. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-William H. Caldwell, the well-known abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.

ESSEX NEWSPAPER. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-The Essex newspaper, published in New York, is now in circulation, and is published weekly.

WILLIAM H. CALDWELL. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-William H. Caldwell, the well-known abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.

ESSEX NEWSPAPER. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-The Essex newspaper, published in New York, is now in circulation, and is published weekly.

WILLIAM H. CALDWELL. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-William H. Caldwell, the well-known abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.

ESSEX NEWSPAPER. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-The Essex newspaper, published in New York, is now in circulation, and is published weekly.

WILLIAM H. CALDWELL. From the New York Times, April 2, 1865.-William H. Caldwell, the well-known abolitionist, has been arrested in New York, and is now in jail, charged with sedition. He was charged with publishing and circulating inflammatory and seditious papers, and is now awaiting trial.
Reparations

AMERICAN APPRECIATION

To Andrew Young, Secretary of State, March 5, 1865.

Sir: I should be exceedingly happy to be permitted to express my appreciation, in the name of the people of the United States, of the beneficent and wise policy of the present administration in regard to the recovery of the territories of the South previously wrested from us. The promptness and the energy with which the present administration has proceeded to recover these territories is a matter of great public satisfaction. I am, etc.

EDUCATION

The Legislature of the State of Ohio has just passed a law providing for the establishment of a system of public education in the State. This is a most important step in the advancement of the civilization of the State, and I congratulate the Legislature on the wisdom of its action. I am, etc.

GOVERNMENT AND THE SWORD

The Government of the United States has taken strong measures for the suppression of insurrection in the South. These measures are necessary for the preservation of the Union, and I commend them to the approval of the American people. I am, etc.

THANKS FROM THE NAVY

The Navy of the United States has rendered distinguished services in the late war. Its officers and men have shown great bravery and devotion to duty. I herewith express my appreciation of their services. I am, etc.

EDUCATIONAL AND LIBRARY INSTITUTIONS

The Legislative Council of the State of New York has recommended the establishment of a University and a Library in the State. These institutions are of great importance, and I commend the action of the Legislature to the intelligent public. I am, etc.

COCKLEBERRY AND BROWN

The Massachusetts Agricultural Society has just awarded premiums to the owners of fine oxen. This is a matter of great public interest, and I congratulate the owners of the prize oxen on their success. I am, etc.