THE LIBERATOR

BOSTON, MASS., FRIDAY, APRIL 26, 1850.

WHOLE NO. 1007.

LETTER TO DANIEL WEBSTER.

The Liberator.

The preamble sets out some of the new compromises and decisions of the government, and the Liberator expresses its view of these changes. It also mentions the recent developments in the Chinese Exclusion Act and their reaction to it.

Looking to the future, the Liberator speculates about the possibility of a new government under President Polk, and considers the implications of the current situation for the country.
