AT THE GREAT HARMONY.

The Great Harmony, a meeting of the anti-slavery party, was held in New York on Tuesday, May 14th. The meeting was attended by a large number of the anti-slavery friends of the country. The meeting was addressed by Mr. William Lloyd Garrison, who spoke on the subject of the abolition of slavery. Mr. Garrison said that the anti-slavery friends of the country were determined to carry on the work of emancipation, and that they would not rest until the last slave had been freed.
