THE LIBERATOR.

J. L. CARRINGTON, EDITOR.

BOSTON, MASS., FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1852.

WHOLE NO. 1111.

ANNUAL MEETING

WORCESTER CO., MASS. DIVISION, A. B.

The Worcester C. W., Anti-Slavery Society, Thursday, April 8, held the annual meeting of the society. The meeting was called to order, and the president, Mr. Whitney, of Worcester, was introduced to the meeting. Mr. Whitney then presided over the meeting, and the secretary read the minutes of the last meeting and the names of the officers for the coming year. Mr. Whitney then called the attention of the society to the important work of the society, and the need of more members. The society was then engaged in the discussion of various topics, including the abolition of slavery and the establishment of schools for the education of colored people.

The society was then adjourned until the next meeting, which will be held on the same day and at the same place as the last meeting. The society will meet regularly once a month, and the officers are elected for the coming year.

From the National Intelligencer:

THEODORE PRAIRIE.

The name Theodore Prairie, or Prairy, is now used in the United States, and is applied to the southern part of the state of Iowa. It is a region of great fertility, and is well watered by the Prairy River. The people of this region are mostly agricultural, and are engaged in the cultivation of corn, wheat, and other crops. The Prairy River is a large stream, and is navigable for a considerable distance. It is a fine waterway, and is used for the transportation of merchandise. The Prairy River is a region of great beauty, and is much admired by visitors. The Prairy River is a region of great interest, and is well worth a visit.
The Liberator

No Union with Slaveholders!

American Anti-Slavery Society

The Annual Meeting of the American Anti-Slavery Society was held at Rochester, N.Y., on Tuesday, Sept. 9th, 1851. The meeting was called to order by the President, and was attended by a large number of the usual members of the society, and also by many others who had been invited to attend. The meeting was then addressed by President William Lloyd Garrison, who spoke for some time on the subject of the abolition of slavery, and the necessity of the immediate and unconditional emancipation of all the slaves in the United States. He said that it was the duty of all who loved freedom, and who were opposed to the institution of slavery, to take active steps for the accomplishment of this great object. He then moved that the society adopt a resolution in favor of immediate emancipation, and this was carried by a large majority.

The attendance at the meeting was large, and the speeches were listened to with great attention. The society then adjourned, and will next meet at Boston, Mass., on the 9th of October, 1851.
MASS ANTI-SLAVERY CONVENTION.
IN CINCINNATI, OHIO.
Thursday, November 29th, 1837.

LETTER FROM FERRY WILSON TO & \nA. K. FERRY.
Nov. 17th, 1837.

Dear Sir,

How are you? I have not heard from you since November 12th, and I am now afraid you have not had an opportunity of receiving my last letter. We have had a very hard winter, but I am happy to say it is now in the spring, and I hope we shall have a good year. I left the country for the winter, and I have been up to St. Louis, and I have been very happy there. I have been up to St. Louis, and I have been very happy there.

Yours truly,
Ferry Wilson.
The Liberator

LETTERS TO HARRIOTT B. WIGHT.

[Text continues with various letters and articles discussing abolitionist and moral reform issues.]

The Liberator

VOL. XXII. NO. 352.

380 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

July 20, 1853.

Mr. Editor:

I am as usual in receipt of your valuable periodical and am always pleased to find that the principles of truth and justice are at last gaining ground.

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]

The Liberator

VOL. XXII. NO. 353.

380 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

July 27, 1853.

Mr. Editor:

I was much pleased to receive your letter of July 10th. I am glad to hear that you are doing well.

Yours truly,

[Signature]

The Liberator

VOL. XXII. NO. 354.

380 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

August 3, 1853.

Mr. Editor:

I have read with great interest your recent articles on the subject of temperance. I am glad to see that you are taking a strong stand on this important matter.

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]

The Liberator

VOL. XXII. NO. 355.

380 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

August 10, 1853.

Mr. Editor:

I was much disappointed to hear of the recent riots in the town of [insert town name]. It is a sad thing to see the blood of innocents shed.

I am glad to see that you are trying to bring the truth to the people. I wish you continued success.

Yours truly,

[Signature]

The Liberator

VOL. XXII. NO. 356.

380 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

August 17, 1853.

Mr. Editor:

I was much pleased to receive your letter of August 10th. I am glad to see that you are doing well.

Yours truly,

[Signature]

The Liberator

VOL. XXII. NO. 357.

380 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

August 24, 1853.

Mr. Editor:

I have read with great interest your recent articles on the subject of education. I am glad to see that you are trying to bring the truth to the people. I wish you continued success.

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]

The Liberator

VOL. XXII. NO. 358.

380 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

September 1, 1853.

Mr. Editor:

I was much disappointed to hear of the recent fires in [insert town name]. It is a sad thing to see the property of innocents destroyed.

I am glad to see that you are trying to bring the truth to the people. I wish you continued success.

Yours truly,

[Signature]

The Liberator

VOL. XXII. NO. 359.

380 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

September 8, 1853.

Mr. Editor:

I have read with great interest your recent articles on the subject of agriculture. I am glad to see that you are trying to bring the truth to the people. I wish you continued success.

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]

The Liberator

VOL. XXII. NO. 360.

380 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

September 15, 1853.

Mr. Editor:

I was much pleased to receive your letter of September 8th. I am glad to see that you are doing well.

Yours truly,

[Signature]

The Liberator

VOL. XXII. NO. 361.

380 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

September 22, 1853.

Mr. Editor:

I have read with great interest your recent articles on the subject of science. I am glad to see that you are trying to bring the truth to the people. I wish you continued success.

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]

The Liberator

VOL. XXII. NO. 362.

380 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

September 29, 1853.

Mr. Editor:

I was much disappointed to hear of the recent floods in [insert town name]. It is a sad thing to see the destruction caused.

I am glad to see that you are trying to bring the truth to the people. I wish you continued success.

Yours truly,

[Signature]

The Liberator

VOL. XXII. NO. 363.

380 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

October 6, 1853.

Mr. Editor:

I have read with great interest your recent articles on the subject of politics. I am glad to see that you are trying to bring the truth to the people. I wish you continued success.

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]

The Liberator

VOL. XXII. NO. 364.

380 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

October 13, 1853.

Mr. Editor:

I was much pleased to receive your letter of October 6th. I am glad to see that you are doing well.

Yours truly,

[Signature]