GOOD NEWS FROM SLAVERY.

We learn from the New York Times that the anti-slavery movement is making great progress in that city. The number of abolitionists is increasing, and a large number of colored people are beginning to take an active part in the movement. The time is coming when the slave trade will be abolished, and the slave will be free. The anti-slavery societies are doing excellent work, and are making great strides towards the abolition of slavery. The time is not far distant when the slave will be free, and the Anti-Slavery movement will have achieved its object.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY.

The Annual Meeting of the American Anti-Slavery Society was held in Boston on May 23, 1854. The society was formed in 1833, and has been doing excellent work ever since. The object of the society is to abolish slavery, and to promote the interests of the colored people. The society is made up of men and women of all ages, and is doing excellent work.

ANTI-SLAVERY CONVENTION.

The Anti-Slavery Convention was held in Boston on May 23, 1854. The convention was called to order by the President, who stated that the object of the convention was to promote the interests of the colored people. The convention was attended by many of the leading anti-slavery men, and the resolutions passed proved that the convention was doing excellent work.

WHAT NORTHERN DUTCHMEN CAN DO.

"The North," as we used to say, is the home of the anti-slavery movement. The North is the land of freedom, and the home of the anti-slavery societies. The North is the place where the anti-slavery men are to be found. The North is the land of the free, and the home of the anti-slavery movement.
