THE LIBERATOR.

Our Country is the World, our Countrymen are all Mankind.

J. B. ERDMAN & SON, PUBLISHERS.

Boston, Friday, June 10, 1853.

WHOLE NUMBER 1168.

SELECTIONS.

PRINCIPLES-STORE.

We are thankful that the principles of the free institutions of the country are becoming more and more clearly understood and appreciated in all parts of the country. We are thankful that the principles of the free institutions of the country are becoming more and more clearly understood and appreciated in all parts of the country. We are thankful that the principles of the free institutions of the country are becoming more and more clearly understood and appreciated in all parts of the country.

THE PROTESTANT MEETING-HOUSE.

The meeting-house of the Protestant Church is a great and noble institution. It is the meeting-place of the people of God, and it is the place where they gather to hear the word of God read and interpreted, to sing the psalms and hymns of the Church, and to pray and give thanks to God. The meeting-house is the place where the people of God come together to worship and to do good to one another, and to the world. The meeting-house is the place where the people of God come together to worship and to do good to one another, and to the world.

THE PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church is the supreme court of the Presbyterian Church. It is the highest court of the Presbyterian Church, and it is the court to which all cases of discipline and controversy are referred. The General Assembly is composed of the ministers and elders of the Presbyterian Church, and it meets once a year to consider the business of the Church.

THE SCHOOLS.

The schools of the country are the places where the children of the country are taught to read and write, to think and reason, to love and serve God, and to do good to one another and to the world. The schools are the places where the children of the country are taught to read and write, to think and reason, to love and serve God, and to do good to one another and to the world.

THE LIBERATOR.