THE LIBERATOR.

No Union with Slavery.

BOSTON, AUGUST 12, 1853.

THIRTIETH WINTER ANNUAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF FRIENDS FOR THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY.

Boston, August 12, 1853.

FRIDAY EVENING.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.

WEST INDIA PROVINCE.

At the house of Mr. Charles Sturt, Esq., in the presence of many of the leading citizens of the city, a large number of the inhabitants of the island were present, who were deeply interested in the proceedings. The meeting was called to order by Mr. John B. Smith, who made a brief address, in which he spoke of the great importance of the subject, and of the necessity of continued efforts to secure the abolition of slavery. He also referred to the recent successes of the anti-slavery movement, and expressed the hope that the efforts of the friends of man would be crowned with success in the future.

A vote of thanks was then moved, and carried, by Mr. John B. Smith, who expressed the desire of the meeting to extend to the friends of man everywhere the heartfelt thanks and good wishes of the inhabitants of the island.

The meeting adjourned.

The friends of man everywhere were deeply interested in the proceedings, and the speeches of the speakers were received with the greatest enthusiasm. The meeting was well attended, and was conducted in a manner calculated to command the attention and admiration of all who were present.
