LETTER FROM A FRIEND IN THE WEST.

Dear Sir: - I enclose a small sum of money, which I trust you will forward to the friends of the poor and the suffering in the North, that they may be enabled to purchase a small amount of goods, by which they can be kept out of debt, and thus enabled to travel in comfort and safety.

With respect,

COLOPHONIA ON THE WANE.

The New York correspondent of the National Era, in a letter to the editor, says the following:

"The trade in Colophonia is coming to a close, and the market is quite quiet. The price is about $2.50 per pound, which is a great decline from the former years. The demand for the same is very much less than before, and the market is quite quiet. The demand for the same is very much less than before, and the market is quite quiet.
