The Liberator

No Union with Slavery.

BOSTON, JANUARY 20, 1854.

NATIONAL ANT-SLAVERY BAZAAR.

THE ANTI-SLAVERY BAZAAR.

The Anti-Slavery Bazaar will be held in Boston, January 20th, at Graves Hall, Tremont Street. A wide variety of goods will be sold for Slavery, and the proceeds will be applied to the support of the American Anti-Slavery Bazaar Association, and to the support of the Anti-Slavery cause generally.

SAMUEL W. BUCKINGHAM.

In December last, while traveling in Connecticut, Mr. Samuel W. Buckingham, a prominent anti-slavery advocate, was killed by a runaway team. He was a brave and generous man, and his death is a loss to the anti-slavery cause.

ON THE WINDMILLS.

Not many days have passed since the death of Mr. Buckingham, but already the anti-slavery movement is gaining strength. The windmills are turning, and the winds of change are blowing. The time of the slow-moving, steady, grinding mill is past. The anti-slavery movement is in full swing, and the winds of change are blowing stronger than ever.

TRIBUTE FROM SCOTLAND.

The anti-slavery movement is gaining strength in Scotland, and the winds of change are blowing stronger than ever. The movement is supported by the leading newspapers and the Church of Scotland, and the winds of change are blowing stronger than ever.

AN ANTI-SLAVERY LECTURE.

On January 20th, a lecture will be given in Boston on the subject of anti-slavery. The lecture will be given by Mr. William Lloyd Garrison, a prominent anti-slavery advocate. The lecture will be held in Graves Hall, Tremont Street.

THE LIBERATOR.

The Liberator, a weekly newspaper, is the leading anti-slavery newspaper in the country. The newspaper is published in Boston, and is read throughout the country. The newspaper is read by the leading anti-slavery advocates, and the winds of change are blowing stronger than ever.