THE LIBERATOR.

THE LIBERATOR: No Union with Slavishness.

BOSTON, SEPTEMBER 20, 1854.

WHY NOT VOTE?

An important amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which is to be submitted to the people of the Union, by the 8th of October, is now before the public. This amendment is designed to secure the rights of property and to prevent the introduction of slavery into any state or territory. The amendment is as follows:

"The people of the United States shall not be denied or abridged, by any law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridged in their right of conscience or of speech or of the press; or their right to assembly; or to petition the government for a redress of grievances."}

This amendment is designed to secure the rights of property and to prevent the introduction of slavery into any state or territory. The amendment is as follows:

"The people of the United States shall not be denied or abridged, by any law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridged in their right of conscience or of speech or of the press; or their right to assembly; or to petition the government for a redress of grievances."

The amendment is to be submitted to the people on the 8th of October, and is to be voted upon by the people of the Union. The amendment is designed to secure the rights of property and to prevent the introduction of slavery into any state or territory. The amendment is as follows:

"The people of the United States shall not be denied or abridged, by any law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridged in their right of conscience or of speech or of the press; or their right to assembly; or to petition the government for a redress of grievances."