THE LIBERATOR.

THE LIBERATOR.

To Union with Slavesholders.

BOSTON, OCTOBER 13, 1854.

A public meeting of the Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Society will be held at the German Church, Washington Street, on Tuesday, the 19th instant, at 7 o'clock, when an important question will be considered.

NEW YORK.

THE PROGRESS OF ANTI-SLAVERY.

The convention of the American Anti-Slavery Society met at the Fourth Street, New York, on the 13th instant.

The convention of the American Anti-Slavery Society met at the Fourth Street, New York, on the 13th instant.

CONVENTION OF COLORED MEN.

The convention of the American Anti-Slavery Society met at the Fourth Street, New York, on the 13th instant.

The convention of the American Anti-Slavery Society met at the Fourth Street, New York, on the 13th instant.

AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP.

The convention of the American Anti-Slavery Society met at the Fourth Street, New York, on the 13th instant.

The convention of the American Anti-Slavery Society met at the Fourth Street, New York, on the 13th instant.

THE OPPOSITION OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The convention of the American Anti-Slavery Society met at the Fourth Street, New York, on the 13th instant.

The convention of the American Anti-Slavery Society met at the Fourth Street, New York, on the 13th instant.

DEMOCRATIC TERROR.

The convention of the American Anti-Slavery Society met at the Fourth Street, New York, on the 13th instant.

The convention of the American Anti-Slavery Society met at the Fourth Street, New York, on the 13th instant.

MEMORIAL OF EDWARD H. RUSSELL, ETC.

The following petition has been presented to the House of Representatives:

Edward H. Russell, one of the members of Congress from the state of Pennsylvania, respectfully represents to the House, that he has received from the citizens of his district, at a meeting held on the 12th instant, the following petition:

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the county of Chester, state that they have been for many years conversant with the subject of the extension of slavery into the territories of the United States, and that they are desirous of expressing their views on the subject.

The petitioners, being the inhabitants of the count