Refuge of Oppression.

Selections.

NEW ENGLAND AFRICANS OF SLAVES.

Case 4. D. Adams, employed as the servant of Bircher, of West Roxbury, Massachusetts, was horned in the State of Georgia. By compulsion he was sold by his master for $125. He was brought from Georgia to Boston, Massachusetts, in August, 1834. By Mr. B. G. Bigelow, before the West Roxbury Probate Court, and committed to the care of the Committee of the Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Society. He was purchased for $265, by Mr. J. M. Giddings, of New York. He was a man of about 40 years of age, of a dark complexion, and of a strong, healthy constitution. He is a good workman, and has been employed in various trades, and has been a good servant. He is now living in the city of Boston, Massachusetts, and is a member of the Massachussetts Anti-Slavery Society.