THE LIBERATOR.
No. 380 with Standpipes.
BOSTON, FEBRUARY 3, 1852.

ANNUAL MEETING
OF THE
Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Society.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. F. W. Bliss, of Northampton, who gave notice of the dissolution of the Society, and also of the resignation of Mr. G. T. B. Andrews, of Salem, and Mr. J. B. Callan, of Lynn. Mr. Bliss then moved that the Society be dissolved, and that the report of the Executive Committee be adopted. The motion was seconded by Mr. J. B. Callan, of Lynn, and carried unanimously.

FRIDAY MORNING.

Treasurer's Report.

The Treasurer's report was read, and was received with acclamation. Mr. Bliss moved that the report be accepted, and that the Treasurer be instructed to prepare a report for the annual meeting. The motion was seconded by Mr. J. B. Callan, of Lynn, and carried unanimously.

Tobacco Question.

The question of the purchase of tobacco was then discussed. Mr. Bliss moved that the Society purchase tobacco, and that the Treasurer be instructed to prepare a report for the annual meeting. The motion was seconded by Mr. J. B. Callan, of Lynn, and carried unanimously.

STATEMENT.

The President then gave the following statement:

"The statement of the Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Society is as follows: The Society has been in existence for the last ten years, and has been active in the work of abolition. The Society has issued several publications, and has also supported several anti-slavery candidates in the election. The Society has also been active in the work of education, and has founded several schools for the education of freedmen. The Society has also been active in the work of relief, and has provided aid for the poor and needy. The Society has also been active in the work of reform, and has supported several reform measures. The Society has also been active in the work of investigation, and has conducted several investigations into the condition of the negro. The Society has also been active in the work of legislation, and has supported several anti-slavery bills. The Society has also been active in the work of construction, and has built several buildings for the use of the negro. The Society has also been active in the work of transportation, and has provided transportation for the negro. The Society has also been active in the work of communication, and has provided communication for the negro. The Society has also been active in the work of education, and has founded several schools for the education of freedmen. The Society has also been active in the work of relief, and has provided aid for the poor and needy. The Society has also been active in the work of reform, and has supported several reform measures. The Society has also been active in the work of investigation, and has conducted several investigations into the condition of the negro. The Society has also been active in the work of legislation, and has supported several anti-slavery bills. The Society has also been active in the work of construction, and has built several buildings for the use of the negro. The Society has also been active in the work of transportation, and has provided transportation for the negro. The Society has also been active in the work of communication, and has provided communication for the negro."

CIVIL RIGHTS.

The question of civil rights was then discussed. Mr. Bliss moved that the Society support the civil rights of the negro, and that the Treasurer be instructed to prepare a report for the annual meeting. The motion was seconded by Mr. J. B. Callan, of Lynn, and carried unanimously.

SOFTWARE.

The question of software was then discussed. Mr. Bliss moved that the Society purchase software, and that the Treasurer be instructed to prepare a report for the annual meeting. The motion was seconded by Mr. J. B. Callan, of Lynn, and carried unanimously.

CONCLUSION.

The meeting then adjourned.