No Union with Sandflies.

BOSTON, MARCH 10, 1862.

THE LIBERATOR.

ANTI-SLAVERY BALL.

At New York on Friday, December 29th, Mr. James G. Birney, in his celebrated and eloquent oration, delivered by the late Sayre, in which he urged the necessity of a Union with Sandflies, was introduced as Mr. Birney, the able and popular orator.

The Speaker then said: "Mr. Birney, I am happy to introduce Mr. Birney, the able and popular orator, and the Union with Sandflies, as the object of our present discussion. Mr. Birney, I trust, will speak for the Union with Sandflies, as he has always done for the Union with Sandflies, and I am sure that his words will be listened to with the greatest attention, and that they will be received with the greatest interest." Mr. Birney then spoke for the Union with Sandflies, and was interrupted by the continual applause of the audience.

AMERICAN OF MR. GARDNER.

Mr. Gardner, in his recent address on the subject of the Union with Sandflies, has spoken with great force and eloquence, and with great truth and justice. He has been heard with the greatest attention, and with the greatest interest, by all those who have heard him.

Mr. Gardner has spoken with great force and eloquence, and with great truth and justice, on the subject of the Union with Sandflies. He has been heard with the greatest attention, and with the greatest interest, by all those who have heard him.

WENDBELLE, FULFILLING DUTIES OF JUDGE LOOMIS.

Mr. Loomis, in his speech on the subject of the Union with Sandflies, has spoken with great force and eloquence, and with great truth and justice. He has been heard with the greatest attention, and with the greatest interest, by all those who have heard him.

Mr. Loomis has spoken with great force and eloquence, and with great truth and justice, on the subject of the Union with Sandflies. He has been heard with the greatest attention, and with the greatest interest, by all those who have heard him.
