THE LIBERATOR.

Our Country is the World, our Countrymen are all Mankind.

BOSTON, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1856.

WHOLE NUMBER 1127.

THE LIBERATOR.

Refuge of Oppression.

From the North — War Independence

The pilgrims of the seven patriarchs, who, on the very verge of the world, are the last of the Jewish nation, are rapidly disappearing. The Jews of the north, who have for centuries been subject to oppression and persecution, are now in a state of revolution. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the South — Happy Independence

The negroes of the south are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the East — Happy Independence

The negroes of the east are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the West — Happy Independence

The negroes of the west are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the Interior — Happy Independence

The negroes of the interior are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the North Africa — Happy Independence

The negroes of the north Africa are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the East Indies — Happy Independence

The negroes of the east Indies are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the South Pacific — Happy Independence

The negroes of the south Pacific are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the West Indies — Happy Independence

The negroes of the west Indies are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the Interior — Happy Independence

The negroes of the interior are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the South Pacific — Happy Independence

The negroes of the south Pacific are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the West Indies — Happy Independence

The negroes of the west Indies are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the Interior — Happy Independence

The negroes of the interior are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the South Pacific — Happy Independence

The negroes of the south Pacific are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.

From the West Indies — Happy Independence

The negroes of the west Indies are rapidly increasing in numbers. They are becoming more and more independent, and are beginning to assert their rights. They are determined to throw off the yoke of their oppressors, and to establish a government of their own. They have already declared that they will not submit to any further imposition, and that they will not pay any more taxes. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more restrictions, and that they will not be subject to any more interference. They have also declared that they will not submit to any more persecutions, and that they will not be subject to any more indignities.