LETTERS FROM RAY} B. ROWELL.

Boston, Mass., March 18, 1851.

Miss Turner:

I am answer to your letter which you allude to, and I am, for the moment, inclined to say that your letter is an instance of one of the things that I have been looking for, and which I have been trying to find out. It is a letter in which the writer has been able to express his thoughts and feelings, and which he has been able to do so in a way that is clear and simple.

THE RIGHTS OF WOMEN.

The emancipation of women is a matter of great importance, and one which we must all be interested in. Women have been oppressed and mistreated, and we must do all that we can to help them to get the rights that they are entitled to. This is a matter that we must all work for, and we must all do our best to help to make it come true.
