REFUGE OF OPPRESSION.

A PROTEST TO THE GOVERNOR OF RHODE ISLAND.

The citizens of the United States, now in the possession of the Governor of Rhode Island, are protest to the Governor of Rhode Island, expressing their heartfelt sympathy with the oppressed and suffering people of that State, and urging upon him the necessity of extending to them the protection of the law. They point out that the Governor has refused to enforce the laws of the State, and that the people of Rhode Island are suffering under the injustice of the law. They appeal to the Governor to take steps to protect the rights of the citizens of Rhode Island, and to prevent the further oppression of the people. They urge upon him the necessity of extending to the people of Rhode Island the protection of the law, and of preventing the further suffering of the people under the injustice of the law.

SELECTIONS.

COMMERCIAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

The following is a list of the advertisements which appear in this issue of the "Liberator." The advertisements are arranged in alphabetical order, with the names of the advertisers in each category.

EXTRACTS FROM THE NEW YORK TIMES.

The following is an extract from the New York Times, which appears in this issue of the "Liberator." The extract is a letter to the Editor, which discusses the importance of the civil war.

THE CASE OF THE SLAVE MOTHER, MADAM HARVEY, AT CHICAGO.

The following is a report of the case of Madam Harvey, a slave woman, who was brought to trial in Chicago. The report is a detailed account of the trial, and includes the testimony of the witnesses.

J. B. F. THOMSON

1856.
THE LIBERATOR.

EXPLANATION.

[Text content not visible due to image quality]

NOTICE.

[Text content not visible due to image quality]