THE LIBERATOR.

BOSTON, AUGUST 29, 1850.

POLITICAL COMPLAINTS.

TWO REPORTS SUBMITTED TO THE HOUSE.

THE JURIS PRUDENTIAE VERSUS.

THE CASE OF MR. GIBBON.

This case, before the House of Representatives, is of great importance, and will occasion a most decided struggle. The House is not to be approached in calm, and the nation is interested in the contest. The petitioners have made a most complete and patient defense, and the arguments are most conclusive. The case is one of the greatest importance in the history of the country, and the result will be of the greatest consequence to the future. The House is not to be approached in calm, and the nation is interested in the contest."
