POETRY.

THE LIBERATOR.

LETTER FROM REV. W. O. HODGINS.

Dear Sir:

I am happy to hear that your paper is still in existence and that it is as influential as ever. I pray that God may bless it and use it for the advancement of the cause of truth and righteousness.

Very truly yours,

W. O. Hodgins.

LETTER FROM REV. J. C. CLARK.

Mr. Secretary:

I am happy to hear that the cause of Freedom is gaining ground. I pray that God may continue to bless it.

Very truly yours,

J. C. Clark.

MEMOIRS OF THE REV. J. C. CLARK.

Clark was a great leader in the cause of freedom. He was a man of great influence and was respected by all who knew him. He was a man of great faith and was always ready to give his life for the cause of justice.

THOMAS RYAN.

New York, Nov. 20, 1856.

Mr. Secretary:

I am happy to hear that the cause of freedom is gaining ground. I pray that God may continue to bless it.

Very truly yours,

Thomas Ryan.

The United States Constitution and

The Pro-Slavery Combinations.

The Constitution of the United States is the foundation of a free society. It guarantees the rights of all citizens and protects them from the tyranny of the government. It is a charter of liberty and a beacon of hope for all who seek freedom.

THOMAS RYAN.

New York, Nov. 21, 1856.

Mr. Secretary:

I am happy to hear that the cause of freedom is gaining ground. I pray that God may continue to bless it.

Very truly yours,

Thomas Ryan.

BETTAT.

New York, Nov. 21, 1856.

Mr. Secretary:

I am happy to hear that the cause of freedom is gaining ground. I pray that God may continue to bless it.

Very truly yours,

Bettat.

Valuable Patents, etc., for

Real and Abstract Property.

These patents are valuable for the protection of real and abstract property. They are a safeguard for all who own property and a protection for all who seek to protect their interests.

THOMAS RYAN.

New York, Nov. 21, 1856.

Mr. Secretary:

I am happy to hear that the cause of freedom is gaining ground. I pray that God may continue to bless it.

Very truly yours,

Thomas Ryan.

The Rights of Women.

Women have a right to be free and equal in all respects. They should be treated with respect and dignity and should be given the same rights and privileges as men.

THOMAS RYAN.

New York, Nov. 21, 1856.

Mr. Secretary:

I am happy to hear that the cause of freedom is gaining ground. I pray that God may continue to bless it.

Very truly yours,

Thomas Ryan.