THE LIBERATOR.

Our Country is the World, our Countrymen are all Men.

J. B. PERKINS & SON, Printers.

VOL XXVI. NO. 49.

BOSTON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1856.

WHOLE NUMBER 1352.

REFUGE OF OPPRESSION.

SLAVERY AND THE SAVAGE TRAPP.

This is the main message of the FBI. In their efforts to eliminate the remaining vestiges of slavery, they have determined to concentrate on the South. Their strategy involves identifying and targeting individuals and organizations suspected of supporting slavery.

SELECTIONS.

LIFE AT THE WEST.

Just the sort of people we need to live at the West,
provide a number of stories about the pioneering experience. These stories illustrate the challenges faced by settlers and the values they held.

INVOLUNTARY CONFINEMENT.

Mr. B. F. Butler, President of the National Anti-Slavery Society, recently spoke about the need for continued efforts to end slavery.

THE SOUTH ALARMED — DEMAND BUT

To the Editor:

The recent developments have alarmed the South.
Calls for the end of slavery continue to grow.

THE KNOCKED ALARMED — TO SOLICIT

The South, alarmed by the recent developments, has decided to take action. They will solicit invitations from the North to join their cause.

THE CIVIL STRUGGLE.

The conflict continues.

The struggle for freedom.

THE SOUTHERN SENTIMENTS.

Southerners express their sentiments.

THE SOUTHERN SENTIMENTS.

Southerners express their sentiments.

THE SOUTHERN SENTIMENTS.

Southerners express their sentiments.

THE SOUTHERN SENTIMENTS.

Southerners express their sentiments.