I am.
January 9th, 1854.

THE LIBERATOR.

Boston, January 9, 1854.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MAGAZINE.

The Antislavery Society of Boston, Met at the Schoolhouse, 36th Street, on Monday, January 9th, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Society had a large attendance at its meeting, and after adjournment, proceeded to the Schoolhouse, where a large number of persons were present. They spent the afternoon in considering the anti-slavery question, and finally adjourned.

THE AMERICAN AGRARIAN.

The American Agrarian, a new agricultural journal, is now being published at the office of the Boston Evening Transcript. It contains a large amount of valuable information on agricultural subjects, and is very useful to farmers.

FOUND AT EAST!

A new book by Dr. Higginson, the Theologian.

RELIGIOUS TRUTH;

Illustrated from Scripture, by Address and Preaching.

By Dr. Higginson, the Theologian.

Biographical Essays.

By Dr. Higginson, the Theologian.

English Traits.

By Dr. Higginson, the Theologian.

DRED;

A Tale of the Great Dismal Swamp. By Dr. Higginson, the Theologian.

Amusement and Instruction.

PARLOR DRAMAS.

By Dr. Higginson, the Theologian.

Special Notices.

By Dr. Higginson, the Theologian.