REFUGE OF OPPRESSION.

SLAVERY A SOCIAL, POLITICAL AND MORAL EVIL.

There are several facts which should make us more earnest in our efforts to extirpate slavery. In the first place, it is an evil which is absolutely necessary to the perpetuation of any free government. The existence of slavery is contrary to the principles of true liberty, as they are understood by the enlightened-minded nations of the world. Slavery is a great and growing evil, which, if allowed to continue, will eventually destroy the free institutions of society.
