THE LIBERATOR.

Our Country is the World, our Countrymen are all Mankind.

W. LLOYD GARRISON, Editor.

VOL. XXVIII. NO. 17.

BOSTON, FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1858.

WHOLE NUMBER, 1427.

The Liberator.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE NEW ENGLAND REFORM LEAGUE.

President's Address. - Wednesday, April 14, 1858.

The annual meeting of the New England Reform League was held last week in Boston, Massachusetts. The Committee of the Reform League, as usual, was in attendance, and the President of the League presided. The meeting was well attended, and the proceedings were of great interest.

The President entered into a detailed account of the operations of the Reform League during the past year, and of the success which had attended them. He said that the League had been very successful in its efforts to secure the passage of the bill for the abolition of slavery, and that it had been able to raise a large sum of money for the support of its work.

The President then proceeded to read a letter from the Secretary of the Union, in which he expressed his hearty thanks for the services rendered by the League in the cause of freedom.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the President, and the adjournment of the League until the next year.

NEW ENGLAND AND THE UNION.

Our country is the world, our countrymen are all mankind.

The United States of America.

A COMMON SENSE OF ACTION.

The abolition of slavery is an act of humanity which must be accomplished. It is a moral and religious duty, and it is the duty of every Christian to do all in his power to bring about this result.

The abolition of slavery is a matter of justice. It is an injustice to deny to any man the right to be free, and the right to be equal before the law. It is an injustice to deny to any man the right to be treated as a human being.

The abolition of slavery is a matter of policy. It is the policy of the United States to promote the welfare of all its people. It is the policy of the United States to secure the happiness of all its citizens.

The abolition of slavery is a matter of economy. It is a matter of economy to the United States to have a free and independent country.

The abolition of slavery is a matter of the highest interest to the United States. It is the highest interest of the United States to have a free and independent country.

The abolition of slavery is a matter of the highest interest to the world. It is the highest interest of the world to have a free and independent country.

The abolition of slavery is a matter of the highest interest to all mankind. It is the highest interest of all mankind to have a free and independent country.

The abolition of slavery is a matter of the highest interest to all mankind. It is the highest interest of all mankind to have a free and independent country.

END OF THE LIBERATOR.