THE LIBERATOR.

MAY 7.

THE NEW MEXICO.

The President was followed by Mr. S. P. Chase, who said:

Mr. President, I rise to make a few remarks upon the New Mexico petition, in which I desire to express my entire concurrence with the views and objects of the petitioners. I consider it a most important and a just cause. I amstractly the idea of conquest, but I do not think it is just for a people to be subjected to a foreign power simply because they are in a conquered state.

A BISHOP’S CONGRATULATIONS.

A Mr. C. L. N. of the Moral Union of New York, and the wealthy and humane Mr. W. H. S. Tappan, of the Moral Union of New York, have been appointed bishops of the Church of England, in the Diocese of New York.

The Twenty-fifth Annual Meeting of the American Anti-Slavery Society was held in the State House, Boston, on Monday, April 22, 1850.

Mr. Channing, of the Moral Union, spoke in favor of the new bishops, and said:

The recent proceedings of the Church of England, in the appointment of bishops of the Church of England, are a matter of great interest and importance. I was glad to hear that Mr. C. L. N. and Mr. W. H. S. Tappan have been appointed bishops of the Church of England, in the Diocese of New York. I trust that they will be able to do good work in the cause of humanity.

Amelia Bloomer, a leading reformer, has been appointed to the Committee on the Conduct of the Annual Meeting of the American Anti-Slavery Society.

The annual meeting of the American Anti-Slavery Society was held in the State House, Boston, on Monday, April 22, 1850. Mr. Channing, of the Moral Union, spoke in favor of the new bishops, and said:

Mr. Channing, of the Moral Union, spoke in favor of the new bishops, and said:

The recent proceedings of the Church of England, in the appointment of bishops of the Church of England, are a matter of great interest and importance. I was glad to hear that Mr. C. L. N. and Mr. W. H. S. Tappan have been appointed bishops of the Church of England, in the Diocese of New York. I trust that they will be able to do good work in the cause of humanity.
The Liberator

MAY 7

THE INVESTIGATION OF THE NATIONAL AMERICAN WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION.

The reorganization of the National Association of American Women's Suffrage has been completed, and the new organization is now ready to take up its work. The Association has been renamed the National American Woman's Suffrage Association, and the new officers are as follows: Miss Julia Ward Howe, president; Miss Susan B. Anthony, vice-president; Miss Lucretia Mott, secretary; Miss Frances Willard, treasurer. The new officers are all well known for their devotion to the cause of woman's suffrage, and are confident that the Association will continue to make progress towards its ultimate object.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

The latest news from the East is that the war is not yet over. The Confederate States have declared war on the United States, and the Confederates have entered Washington, D.C.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S PLAY.

The Eighth Woman's Play, by Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, was produced last night at the Empire Theatre. The play is a sequel to the famous work of the same author, Uncle Tom's Cabin, and is based on the same theme. The production was well received, and the play was produced to a full house.

THE SIXTH WOMAN'S MEETING.

The Sixth Woman's Meeting, held last week in New York, was attended by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The meeting was called to discuss the question of woman's suffrage, and was presided over by Miss Susan B. Anthony. The meeting adopted a resolution in favor of the immediate enfranchisement of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S CONVENTION.

The Eighth Woman's Convention, held last month in Boston, was attended by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The convention was called to discuss the question of woman's rights, and was presided over by Miss Julia Ward Howe. The convention adopted a resolution in favor of the immediate enfranchisement of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S FESTIVAL.

The Eighth Woman's Festival, held last week in New York, was attended by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The festival was called to celebrate the achievements of women in the field of education, and was presided over by Miss Lucretia Mott. The festival was well received, and was attended by a large number of visitors.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S PROTEST.

The Eighth Woman's Protest, issued last month, was signed by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The protest was issued in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was signed by Miss Susan B. Anthony. The protest called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S PAMPHLET.

The Eighth Woman's Pamphlet, issued last week, was signed by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The pamphlet was issued in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was signed by Miss Lucretia Mott. The pamphlet called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S SONG.

The Eighth Woman's Song, composed last month, was sung by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The song was composed in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was sung by Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe. The song called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S PICTURE.

The Eighth Woman's Picture, painted last week, was exhibited by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The picture was painted in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was exhibited by Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe. The picture called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S BOOK.

The Eighth Woman's Book, published last month, was written by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The book was written in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was published by Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe. The book called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S LETTER.

The Eighth Woman's Letter, written last week, was sent to a large number of women from all parts of the country. The letter was written in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was sent to Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe. The letter called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S Appeal.

The Eighth Woman's Appeal, issued last month, was signed by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The appeal was issued in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was signed by Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe. The appeal called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

The Eighth Woman's Proposed Constitutional Amendment, issued last week, was signed by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The amendment was signed in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was signed by Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe. The amendment called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S PROPOSED CONSTITUTION.

The Eighth Woman's Proposed Constitution, published last month, was written by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The constitution was written in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was written by Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe. The constitution called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S PAMPHLET.

The Eighth Woman's Pamphlet, issued last week, was signed by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The pamphlet was signed in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was signed by Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe. The pamphlet called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S SONG.

The Eighth Woman's Song, composed last month, was sung by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The song was composed in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was sung by Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe. The song called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S PICTURE.

The Eighth Woman's Picture, painted last week, was exhibited by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The picture was painted in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was exhibited by Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe. The picture called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S BOOK.

The Eighth Woman's Book, published last month, was written by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The book was written in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was published by Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe. The book called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S LETTER.

The Eighth Woman's Letter, written last week, was sent to a large number of women from all parts of the country. The letter was written in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was sent to Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe. The letter called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.

THE EIGHTH WOMAN'S Appeal.

The Eighth Woman's Appeal, issued last month, was signed by a large number of women from all parts of the country. The appeal was issued in response to the activities of the Confederate States, and was signed by Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe. The appeal called for immediate action to protect the rights of women.