OFFICE OF OPPRESSION.

THE BANNER OF LIGHT.

Mr. GARRISON.

The House of Acts of the states in its recent proceedings, the suppression of the editor of the Liberator, has caused the sensation that the public has come to expect from the labors of that body. The measure is a bold one, and is calculated to impress the mind of the people with a sense of the importance of the cause in which they are engaged. It is a measure that has been long urged, and is one that has been frequently threatened. It is a measure that has been long delayed, and is one that has been frequently expected. It is a measure that has been long debated, and is one that has been frequently discussed. It is a measure that has been long wanted, and is one that has been frequently desired. It is a measure that has been long needed, and is one that has been frequently required.

The House of Acts of the states in its recent proceedings, the suppression of the editor of the Liberator, has caused the sensation that the public has come to expect from the labors of that body. The measure is a bold one, and is calculated to impress the mind of the people with a sense of the importance of the cause in which they are engaged. It is a measure that has been long urged, and is one that has been frequently threatened. It is a measure that has been long delayed, and is one that has been frequently expected. It is a measure that has been long debated, and is one that has been frequently discussed. It is a measure that has been long wanted, and is one that has been frequently desired. It is a measure that has been long needed, and is one that has been frequently required.

The House of Acts of the states in its recent proceedings, the suppression of the editor of the Liberator, has caused the sensation that the public has come to expect from the labors of that body. The measure is a bold one, and is calculated to impress the mind of the people with a sense of the importance of the cause in which they are engaged. It is a measure that has been long urged, and is one that has been frequently threatened. It is a measure that has been long delayed, and is one that has been frequently expected. It is a measure that has been long debated, and is one that has been frequently discussed. It is a measure that has been long wanted, and is one that has been frequently desired. It is a measure that has been long needed, and is one that has been frequently required.

The House of Acts of the states in its recent proceedings, the suppression of the editor of the Liberator, has caused the sensation that the public has come to expect from the labors of that body. The measure is a bold one, and is calculated to impress the mind of the people with a sense of the importance of the cause in which they are engaged. It is a measure that has been long urged, and is one that has been frequently threatened. It is a measure that has been long delayed, and is one that has been frequently expected. It is a measure that has been long debated, and is one that has been frequently discussed. It is a measure that has been long wanted, and is one that has been frequently desired. It is a measure that has been long needed, and is one that has been frequently required.
The Liberator

No Union with Slavocracy

Boston, August 8, 1858

What India Bragadition.

The anniversary of the abolition of slavery in India was observed last week with much enthusiasm and fervor. The date, March 29th, is a national holiday in India, and is commemorated with public festivals and speeches. The purpose of the holiday is to honor the memory of those who served in the battle against slavery, and to inspire future generations to continue the fight against oppression.

President: EDWARD GORDON, of Indianapolis.

Secretary: Charles A. Spooner, of Yonkers, N.Y.

Treasurer: James M. Pendleton, of New York.

The Liberator is a newspaper that publishes articles and editorials on topics related to abolitionism, social justice, and other progressive causes. It was founded by William Lloyd Garrison in 1831 and continued to be published until 1865. The newspaper was instrumental in promoting the abolitionist movement in the United States.

The Liberator

August 8, 1858

To: The Editor of The Liberator,

From: A Subscriber

I am writing to express my strong support for the cause of abolitionism. As a long-time reader of your newspaper, I have been greatly inspired by the articles and editorials you have published on this important issue.

I believe that the fight against slavery is not only a moral imperative, but also a necessary step towards building a more just and equitable society. I have seen firsthand the suffering and injustice that slavery brings, and I am committed to doing my part to help bring an end to this evil.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

---

[The text continues with various articles and editorials on topics related to abolitionism, social justice, and other progressive causes.]

---

[The text concludes with a letter to the editor discussing a recent event or issue that is relevant to the cause of abolitionism.]
AUGUST 6. THE LIBERATOR. 127

LETTER FROM J. W. GIBBONS.

HELENA, September 13, 1857.

Dear Sir,—You ask me if I have been out of the State of Montana. I have not. I have been in Helena since the middle of the month of August, and have been engaged in the practice of law. I have not had time to travel. I have been too busy to think of travel.

Very truly yours,

J. W. GIBBONS.

CRIME AND PUNISHMENT.

A large number of convicts are at present in the Montana State Penitentiary. The leading issues of crime in the State are the following: 1. The murder of a man by a woman. 2. The stealing of a horse. 3. The breaking and entering of a house. 4. The forgery of a check. 5. The uttering and publishing of a false and forged check. 6. The breaking and entering of a bank. 7. The murder of a man by a man.

The leading issues of punishment in the State are the following: 1. Death by hanging. 2. Life imprisonment. 3. Hard labor for life. 4. Hard labor for ten years. 5. Hard labor for five years. 6. Hard labor for two years. 7. Hard labor for one year.

Very truly yours,

J. W. GIBBONS.

THE LIBERATOR.

HELENA, September 13, 1857.

Dear Sir,—I have been in Helena since the middle of the month of August, and have been engaged in the practice of law. I have not had time to travel. I have been too busy to think of travel.

Very truly yours,

J. W. GIBBONS.