THE LIBERATOR

Our Country is the World, our Countrymen are all Mankind.

NEW LLOYD GARRISON, Editor.

VOL. XXVIII. NO. 39. BOSTON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1858. WHOLE NUMBER, 1449.

RESCUE OF OPPRESSION

SELECTED FROM THE AMERICAN PRESS

STATE OF FEDERAL INSECURITY

MARCH TO THE SOCIAL UNION

THE WORLD DUG IN THE GRAVE

SLAVERY TO THE WEEPING MOTHERS

THEODORE HOPKINS, EDITOR.

PREACHING AGAINST SLAVERY

The following (this occurred half a year before Dred Scott's decision, which occurs in the same issue) is a letter from the editor of The Liberator, which states that the publication of his paper is being threatened due to legal action. The editor argues that the paper is not violating any laws and that the threat is a way to suppress freedom of speech.

MISSOURI COMES FOR THE FREEDOMERS

Another article discusses the situation in Missouri, where the editor expresses concern about the potential for violence and the need for action to protect the liberty of enslaved people. The editor calls for a movement to protect the rights of the people of Missouri and to prevent the return of slavery.

THE DEATH OF A HUMAN BEING

A letter from New York City discusses the death of a human being, which is not explicitly named. The editor comments on the somber nature of the event and expresses his sympathy for the families and friends of the deceased.

THE LIBERATOR

The editor of The Liberator expresses his commitment to the cause of ending slavery and highlights the importance of continuing the fight for freedom. The editor encourages readers to support the publication and to remain steadfast in the struggle against oppression.
THE LIBERATOR.

POETRY

The Liberator.

REVIEW OF A LETTER OF REMARKABLE IMPORTANCE.

Boston, Sept. 20, 18... (Partial text)

The Liberator.

AGNES

AN HISTORICAL ACCOUNT OF THE REVOLUTION OF 183... (Partial text)

Propsperous home school.

COTTAGE HOUSE FOR RAIL OR ELECTRIC RACE.

Hitchings & Bessey.

PAPER HANGINGS.