REFUGE OF OPPRESSION.

The Liberator.

LETTER FROM ANDREW T. P. FOSTER.

Dear Friend:—I am happy to hear from you, and to learn that you are in good health and spirits. I am in hopes that you will come to see me soon, as I have much to say on the subject of our common cause. I have been engaged in the abolition movement for many years, and have seen many changes in the laws and practices that are opposed to freedom. I am confident that we shall soon succeed in overthrowing the system of slavery, and establishing a country in which all men are free and equal. I hope that you will continue to support our cause, and that we may soon see the day when our country shall be free from the curse of slavery. Yours truly,

R. H. Foster.

R. H. FOSTER AT YALE.

"The people of New Haven favor us," said Mr. Foster, "we have been successful in gaining support from the community, and we are confident that we shall soon overcome the opposition of the slave power. I have been engaged in the abolition movement for many years, and have seen many changes in the laws and practices that are opposed to freedom. I am confident that we shall soon succeed in overthrowing the system of slavery, and establishing a country in which all men are free and equal. I hope that you will continue to support our cause, and that we may soon see the day when our country shall be free from the curse of slavery. Yours truly,

R. H. Foster."
