THE LIBERATOR.

BOSTON, DECEMBER 31, 1854.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
The Liberator has no more public notices.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

H. S. SPURGEON, PUBLISHER.

VICTUALS IN BOSTON MARKETS.

The December 29th issue of the Liberator contains a special notice about the price of victuals in Boston markets. It mentions a recent increase in prices and discusses the implications of this trend on the local economy and consumers.

THE NEW YORK BARTER.

The New York Barter is a monthly publication that features articles on various topics, including politics, economics, and social issues. It is known for its critical stance on government policies and its support for labor rights.

AS IT IS ACCOMPLISHED.

The section titled "As It Is Accomplished" covers various events and developments of the day. It includes reports on significant political and social events, as well as updates on the progress of reform movements.

MINER'S VIGILANCE.

Miners' Vigilance refers to the vigilance committees that emerged during the 19th century in the American West, particularly in California and Nevada. These committees were formed to protect miners and other workers from violence and to maintain law and order in the region.

EPH.

Eph is a short form often used in historical documents to refer to "experience" or "epiphany." It is a word that has been used throughout history to denote a sudden realization or insight.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

This section offers suggestions for improving the quality of journalism and the dissemination of news. It encourages writers to be more objective, factual, and fair in their reporting.

REPORTS AND ADVICE.

Reports and advice columns were common in 19th-century newspapers. They provided readers with information on various topics, ranging from local news to international events, and offered advice on how to navigate daily life.

THE UNION AND THE CONSTITUTION.

The Union and the Constitution discusses the role of the Union in upholding the principles of the U.S. Constitution. It highlights the importance of unity in the face of political and social challenges.

THE NEW YORK TELEGRAPH.

The New York Telegraph is a daily newspaper that provides news updates from various parts of the United States. It is known for its comprehensive coverage of local and national events.

SERK COUNTY A REPORT.

Serk County is a region in the U.S. that was often the subject of news reports due to its strategic location and significant economic activities. Reports from this area typically focus on local politics, economy, and social trends.

MINER'S VIGILANCE.

The Miner's Vigilance is a movement that emerged in the 19th century to protect miners and other workers from violence and to maintain law and order in the American West, particularly in California and Nevada.