A NEW LANDMARK.

BIDDER JAMES AND THE GEORGIA MNO.

The new landmark on the Georgia-Mississippi line is about to be set up.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE OPENING OF THE WEST INDIA TRADE.

The anniversary of the opening of the West India trade is on the 25th of this month.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

The new publications include:

- "The History of the New England Colonies," by John Adams

THE FOUNTAINS AT FRANKLIN.

The fountains at Franklin are now in full bloom.

JULY 15.
THE LIBERATOR.

THE METHODIST CHURCH AND SLAVERY.

What is the status of the Methodist Episcopal Church concerning slavery? It is stated that in the conference held recently in Baltimore, the church's stance on slavery was discussed.

The conference took place on the 7th of April, 1857, and was attended by Bishop H. McAlister of the Black River Conference, and Bishop John S. Johnson of the Northern Central Conference. The statement reads, "The conference met in Baltimore on the 7th of April, 1857, and was attended by Bishop H. McAlister of the Black River Conference, and Bishop John S. Johnson of the Northern Central Conference."