When Brown was brought to jail

They asked him what he had done.

He said, "I have brought freedom to a land where it was unknown before."
LETTER FROM JOHN BROWN IN PRISON.
The following letter from John Brown has been received by us this day:

"I have been in jail ever since the 2d of January, 1861, when I was taken prisoner by the Virginia police. I have been in jail ever since, and have never been out of jail. I have been in prison ever since, and have never been out of prison. I have never been out of jail ever since, and have never been out of prison ever since."
THE VIRGINIA FREIGHT.

A correspondent of the New York Times says: A large number of the railroad trains in Virginia from Richmond to the North are now being loaded with troops, stores, &c., in an alarming manner. The troops are being sent to different points in the state, and a large number of supplies are being sent to the eastern counties. The state has received a large number of soldiers from the Federal government, and the troops are being concentrated in various places.
