REFUGE OF OPPRESSION

In reading South. This consideration that enforced and useful class of labor in society, have been always found in the South, where the system of slavery has existed for a considerable length of time. It is a melancholy fact that the system of slavery has been in operation for many years, and that it has been the cause of much suffering and misery. The system of slavery has been the cause of much suffering and misery. The system of slavery has been the cause of much suffering and misery. The system of slavery has been the cause of much suffering and misery. The system of slavery has been the cause of much suffering and misery.

SELECTED

From the Indian Repository.

IN THE INDIAN RESERVATION.

The Indian reservation is a territory granted to the Indians by the United States government, for the purpose of preserving them in their ancient customs and modes of life. It is a reservation, or a territory granted to the Indians by the United States government, for the purpose of preserving them in their ancient customs and modes of life. It is a reservation, or a territory granted to the Indians by the United States government, for the purpose of preserving them in their ancient customs and modes of life. It is a reservation, or a territory granted to the Indians by the United States government, for the purpose of preserving them in their ancient customs and modes of life. It is a reservation, or a territory granted to the Indians by the United States government, for the purpose of preserving them in their ancient customs and modes of life.
THE LIBERATOR.

JULY 6, 1832.

HAIR RESTORER?

HERMANN'S CONVENTION IN IOWA.

John E. Overton, of Keokuk, Iowa, sent me a letter addressed to me as "Chairman of the Convention of the People of Iowa," which I am reprinting:

"The convocation of the People of Iowa was held at Columbia, on the 22d of July, and continued for seven days. The convention was composed of about twelve hundred members, who assembled in a large and commodious building, and elected to the office of President of the convention, Mr. A. D. A.之中, who was chosen on the roll call. Mr. L. T. F. of Delaware was elected Secretary of the convention. The convention was addressed by several of the prominent statesmen of the state, who spoke in favor of the immediate abolition of slavery. The convention adopted a resolution in favor of the immediate abolition of slavery, and declared itself in favor of the immediate adoption of the Constitution of the United States, as amended by the 13th and 14th Amendments. The convention adjourned.

In pursuance of the resolution of the convention, Mr. A. D. A., as President, proceeded to the following speech:

"Gentlemen: The convention has assembled to consider the question of immediate abolition, which has been presented to us by our constitution. I move that the convention adopt the resolution of the convention of the People of Iowa, and declare itself in favor of the immediate abolition of slavery."

The motion was carried by a large majority.

John E. Overton.

The convention adjourned.

HERMANN'S CONVENTION IN IOWA.

JULY 6, 1832.

HERMANN'S CONVENTION IN IOWA.

John E. Overton, of Keokuk, Iowa, sent me a letter addressed to me as "Chairman of the Convention of the People of Iowa," which I am reprinting:

"The convocation of the People of Iowa was held at Columbia, on the 22d of July, and continued for seven days. The convention was composed of about twelve hundred members, who assembled in a large and commodious building, and elected to the office of President of the convention, Mr. A. D. A.之中, who was chosen on the roll call. Mr. L. T. F. of Delaware was elected Secretary of the convention. The convention was addressed by several of the prominent statesmen of the state, who spoke in favor of the immediate abolition of slavery. The convention adopted a resolution in favor of the immediate abolition of slavery, and declared itself in favor of the immediate adoption of the Constitution of the United States, as amended by the 13th and 14th Amendments. The convention adjourned.

In pursuance of the resolution of the convention, Mr. A. D. A., as President, proceeded to the following speech:

"Gentlemen: The convention has assembled to consider the question of immediate abolition, which has been presented to us by our constitution. I move that the convention adopt the resolution of the convention of the People of Iowa, and declare itself in favor of the immediate abolition of slavery."

The motion was carried by a large majority.

John E. Overton.

The convention adjourned.

THE LIBERATOR.