THE LATE OUTBREAK OF OUR CITY.
Meeting of Members of the Abolition Society.

The late outburst of our city has caused the Abolition Society to meet in its usual hall, on Monday evening, to consider the present state of affairs. The meeting was well attended, and Mr. Thaddeus Stevens, Mr. Wm. L. Garrison, and Mr. L. M. Powell, were invited to be present. The first business was to express the sympathy of the Society with the members of the Convention and other friends of the cause, in their suffering and anxiety. It was also voted to send a deputation to the convention, to express the sentiments of the Society in behalf of the cause of freedom, and to tender the services of its members in any way that may be required. The deputation was composed of Mr. Thaddeus Stevens, Mr. Wm. L. Garrison, and Mr. L. M. Powell.

THE ANTI-SLAVERY CONVENTION.
The meeting of the Convention took place at 9 o'clock, on Monday evening, in the hall of the society. The meeting was well attended, and the officers were present. The first business was to report the proceedings of the Convention, which was done by Mr. Thaddeus Stevens, who gave a full account of the proceedings of the Convention, and the resolutions passed. The Convention was then adjourned to meet again on the 10th instant, at 8 o'clock.

THE STATE OF THE QUESTION.
The state of the question was then discussed. Mr. Thaddeus Stevens said that the question of slavery was one of the greatest importance, and that it must be settled by the people of the United States. He said that the abolitionists were not seeking to overthrow the government, but to remove an evil that was incompatible with the principles of freedom. Mr. Wm. L. Garrison said that the abolitionists were not seeking to do anything except to do good. He said that the abolitionists were seeking to do good to the people of the United States, and that they were doing all they could to remove an evil that was incompatible with the principles of freedom.

No Union with Slavery.
The meeting was then adjourned to meet again on the 10th instant, at 8 o'clock.
