Refuge of Oppression.

The Eulogy in Baltimore.
The following letter received in the city, in response to the call of the American Anti-Slavery Society for a statement of the case of the fugitive slave, named James, is printed from the Baltimore Daily Sun, the organ of the Society of Friends in that city:

John H., a Northern free man, and a Union soldier, has been arrested in this city by a Union soldier, and held for the United States. James, a Southern slave, has been released as a free man.

Selections.

A Northern Sea Captain and His Son Westward and Experimental.

A Northern sea captain and his son are to proceed westward and experimental. They have been commissioned by the United States government to proceed to the Pacific coast, and take possession of it for the United States.

Sherlock Holmes of the War.

Mr. Sherlock Holmes of the War Department, who has been appointed to preside over the war, has arrived in Washington, and is now in conference with the President.

Papers that have been published in the last week:

A letter has been received from the New York Times, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The New York Herald.

A letter has been received from the New York Herald, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The New York Tribune.

A letter has been received from the New York Tribune, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The New York World.

A letter has been received from the New York World, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Advertiser.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Advertiser, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Evening Transcript.

A letter has been received from the Boston Evening Transcript, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Pilot.

A letter has been received from the Boston Pilot, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Journal.

A letter has been received from the Boston Journal, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily News.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily News, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Courier.

A letter has been received from the Boston Courier, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston American.

A letter has been received from the Boston American, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Traveler.

A letter has been received from the Boston Traveler, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Post.

A letter has been received from the Boston Post, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Times.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Times, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Recorder.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Recorder, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Advertiser.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Advertiser, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily News Letter.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily News Letter, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Letter.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Letter, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Post.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Post, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Recorder.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Recorder, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Advertiser.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Advertiser, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily News Letter.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily News Letter, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Letter.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Letter, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Post.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Post, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Recorder.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Recorder, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Advertiser.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Advertiser, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily News Letter.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily News Letter, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Letter.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Letter, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Post.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Post, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Recorder.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Recorder, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily Advertiser.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily Advertiser, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.

The Boston Daily News Letter.

A letter has been received from the Boston Daily News Letter, which states that the paper is in favor of the war, and that it is confident of success.