Church, Boston, in answer to some remarks made by Mr. Lincoln of the New York Telegraph, published in the Liberator of last week, says: "I have been much interested in the views which Mr. Lincoln has expressed, and I feel that there is much to be said in favor of his views. The subject of slavery is a very important one, and it is my belief that it should be handled with great care and consideration. I believe that the abolition of slavery is a matter of great importance, and I am glad to see that Mr. Lincoln is taking a strong position on this question."
