Refuge of Oppression.

Primary Emigration.

Urges for the War.

Selections.

Letter from John Adams, Esq.

The War in its Relation to Slavery.

Under the Editor.

Letters to the Editor.

On the War.

The Liberator.
A GOLDEN WEDDING.

London, August 9, 1861.

My dear Mr. G—,

In the midst of our wedding festivities, I was delighted to receive your letter of the 3rd inst., informing me of the birth of your son, the joyous event having escaped my attention. I have longed to see the newborn. I hope that his happiness may be as enduring as the bond which joins my heart to your own. The day may come when I shall be able to see him, but until then, let him be loved as a son by his mother and father.

Affectionately,

R. D. W.