Refuge of Oppression.

The position of the Negro under his present servitude is one of the most deplorable situations to be found in the world. The government of the United States is responsible for the condition of the Negro, and it is the duty of the government to provide for his welfare. The government has failed in its duty, and the Negro is left to suffer under the tyranny of the master. The government has no power to protect the Negro, and the master has no power to be controlled by the government. The Negro is at the mercy of the master, and he is left to suffer under his cruel treatment. The government has no power to interfere, and the master has no power to be controlled. Poe's "The Liberator." WAY THE JUDGMENT OF GOD IS GIV THE TARIFF.

A Piece by Rev. Dr. William E. Channing.

The people of the United States are now in a critical situation. The crime of the administration has been so great as to render it impossible for them to continue in office. They have been so idle, so unfaithful, so inefficient, so unjust, that they are not only liable to punishment, but they are now harboring within their bosoms a crime that will be visited with the vengeance of the Almighty. The people are now in a critical situation, and the crisis is not far distant. The people of the United States are now in a critical situation, and the crisis is not far distant. The people of the United States are now in a critical situation, and the crisis is not far distant.
