A Nightfall View of America

By a Northern Abolitionist

[Article discussing the state of America and the need for abolition]

What, then, is to be thought of a war that fills the country and the world with so much excitement? It is a war that involves the welfare of the nation and the world. It is a war that involves the preservation of the Constitution and the Union. It is a war that involves the emancipation of the slave and the freedom of the people. It is a war that involves the preservation of the rights of the states and the federal government.

The Constitution is the fundamental law of the land, and it is the basis of all our political institutions. It is the source of all our rights, and it is the guide of all our actions. It is the charter of our liberties, and it is the guarantor of our freedom.

The Union is the government of the people, and it is the embodiment of our national life. It is the symbol of our unity, and it is the expression of our common will. It is the foundation of our prosperity, and it is the basis of our strength.

The slave is a human being, and he is entitled to the same rights as any other citizen. He is entitled to the protection of the law, and he is entitled to the privileges of the Constitution. He is entitled to the benefits of education, and he is entitled to the advantages of citizenship.

Therefore, let us support the Constitution, let us support the Union, and let us support the freedom of the people. Let us fight for the right, let us fight for the truth, let us fight for the welfare of the nation and the world.

What of the War?

Many people are now asking what the war will mean. Some say that it will end in victory for the North. Others say that it will end in victory for the South. But I think that the war will end in victory for the Union.

The Union is the government of the people, and it is the embodiment of our national life. It is the symbol of our unity, and it is the expression of our common will. It is the foundation of our prosperity, and it is the basis of our strength.

Therefore, let us support the Union, let us support the Constitution, and let us support the freedom of the people. Let us fight for the right, let us fight for the truth, let us fight for the welfare of the nation and the world.

Slavery and the War

In an article on slavery as affected by the present war, I stated that the abolition of slavery was necessary for the preservation of the Union. I stated that the abolition of slavery was necessary for the preservation of the Constitution.

But I also stated that the abolition of slavery was necessary for the preservation of the people. I stated that the abolition of slavery was necessary for the preservation of the rights of the states.

Therefore, let us support the abolition of slavery, let us support the preservation of the Union, and let us support the preservation of the Constitution. Let us fight for the right, let us fight for the truth, let us fight for the welfare of the nation and the world.
