Refuge of Oppression.

The true happiness of black and white.

The institution of slavery.

Congress had better adopt this resolution.

The administration and the congress.

The Liberator.

Prominent topics from the press.

Great need to join a crusade.

Great need to join a crusade.
THE LIBERATOR.

Boston, Friday, January 5, 1851.

NO. 105.

ANNUAL MEETING of the
THE LIBERATOR.

ABSTRACT OF THE MEETING.

The twenty-third Annual Meeting of the Liberator, held at Albany, on the morning of December 30th, was attended by a large and a most respectable company. The meeting was called to order by Mr. A. M. Parker, President, who, in the course of his remarks, said that the Liberator had always been the organ of the working classes, and that he had no reason to doubt that it would continue to be so. He then introduced Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who moved the adoption of the minutes of the last meeting. The motion was seconded by Mr. J. B. Van Osdel, and adopted.

The President then called upon Mr. H. B. Anthony, who presented the financial report of the Liberator for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.

The President then called upon Mr. S. H. Hurlbut, who presented the report of the managers for the year 1850. The report showed a deficit of $500, which was to be made good by the sale of stock.