Refuge of Oppression.

The Liberator.

TWENTIETH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY.

The President.—It is a happy thought, for the inhabitants of all the earth, that we find ourselves in the midst of a world-wide movement of reform, and that the law of the land is everywhere being changed to conform with the principles of humanity and justice. It is a happy thought, for the inhabitants of the United States, that we have been brought into this movement, and that we are now participating in it.

The President.—Let us then, with confidence, accept the mantle of duty which is cast upon us, and strive to do our best to promote the welfare of mankind.

The Liberator.—Let us then, with confidence, accept the mantle of duty which is cast upon us, and strive to do our best to promote the welfare of mankind.
