THE LIBERATOR

VOL XXXIII. NO. 48. BOSTON, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1863. WHOLE NO. 1712.

Relief of Oppression.

Lettet of Right Rev. Bishop Hopkins.

For the Relief of the sufferers in the Commonwealth of Georgia, in consequence of the recent violence and disorder.

GEORGE THOMSON.

Selections.

Lettet of Right Rev. Bishop Hopkins.

For the Relief of the sufferers in the Commonwealth of Georgia, in consequence of the recent violence and disorder.

GEORGE THOMSON.

Schoolef at New York.

By the Right Rev. Bishop Hopkins.

For the Relief of the sufferers in the Commonwealth of Georgia, in consequence of the recent violence and disorder.

GEORGE THOMSON.

Effect of the Emancipation Act on the Southern States.

By the Right Rev. Bishop Hopkins.

For the Relief of the sufferers in the Commonwealth of Georgia, in consequence of the recent violence and disorder.

GEORGE THOMSON.

Effect of the Emancipation Act on the Southern States.

By the Right Rev. Bishop Hopkins.

For the Relief of the sufferers in the Commonwealth of Georgia, in consequence of the recent violence and disorder.

GEORGE THOMSON.

Effect of the Emancipation Act on the Southern States.

By the Right Rev. Bishop Hopkins.

For the Relief of the sufferers in the Commonwealth of Georgia, in consequence of the recent violence and disorder.

GEORGE THOMSON.

Effect of the Emancipation Act on the Southern States.

By the Right Rev. Bishop Hopkins.

For the Relief of the sufferers in the Commonwealth of Georgia, in consequence of the recent violence and disorder.

GEORGE THOMSON.
Society.

The Liberator.

PLANTATION PICTURES.

CHAPTER VIII.

THE TIMES.

Odd a while ago, at the annual election of the long-suffering, of Mount Pleasant. He became a candidate for a yeoman's seat in the Virginia House of Burgesses. He was opposed to a man named Brown, who was a prominent member of the opposition. The contest was sharp, and the election was decided by a narrow margin. But in the end, Dr. Brown was elected. The story goes that the vote was stolen, and that the election was rigged. However, the fact remains that Dr. Brown was the victor.

The next year, Dr. Brown ran for re-election, but this time he was opposed by a man named Johnson. The contest was even more bitter than the previous one, and the election was decided by a margin of just one vote. Dr. Brown was re-elected. The story goes that the vote was again stolen, and that the election was rigged. However, the fact remains that Dr. Brown was the victor.

In the years that followed, Dr. Brown continued to serve in the House of Burgesses, and he became known as a strong supporter of the party of liberty. He was a man of great integrity, and he was respected by all who knew him. And even though he had to battle against great odds, he never gave up his fight for freedom.

to the end of the line.

The Liberator.

THE TIMES.

Odd a while ago, at the annual election of the long-suffering, of Mount Pleasant. He became a candidate for a yeoman's seat in the Virginia House of Burgesses. He was opposed to a man named Brown, who was a prominent member of the opposition. The contest was sharp, and the election was decided by a narrow margin. But in the end, Dr. Brown was elected. The story goes that the vote was stolen, and that the election was rigged. However, the fact remains that Dr. Brown was the victor.

The next year, Dr. Brown ran for re-election, but this time he was opposed by a man named Johnson. The contest was even more bitter than the previous one, and the election was decided by a margin of just one vote. Dr. Brown was re-elected. The story goes that the vote was again stolen, and that the election was rigged. However, the fact remains that Dr. Brown was the victor.

In the years that followed, Dr. Brown continued to serve in the House of Burgesses, and he became known as a strong supporter of the party of liberty. He was a man of great integrity, and he was respected by all who knew him. And even though he had to battle against great odds, he never gave up his fight for freedom.

to the end of the line.

SPEECHES, LECTURES, AND LETTERS.

by WENDELL PHILLIPS.

THE BLACK MAN:

By WENDELL PHILLIPS.

THE BLACK MAN:

By WENDELL PHILLIPS.

THE BLACK MAN:

By WENDELL PHILLIPS.

THE BLACK MAN:

By WENDELL PHILLIPS.

THE BLACK MAN:

By WENDELL PHILLIPS.

THE BLACK MAN:

By WENDELL PHILLIPS.