Selections.

The Presidential Nomination.

[Article discussing the Presidential nomination and its implications.]

No Hope now of Union of Lincoln’s Opponents.

[Discussion on the lack of cooperation between Lincoln’s opponents and their possible strategies for the future.]

Preceding the Civil War: A Book on the Russian Cossacks.

[Article on the history and culture of the Cossacks, their role in Russian history, and their impact on the society and military of the Russian Empire.]

The Treasury Department.

[Information on the current financial status and policies of the Treasury Department, including budget allocations and tax strategies.]
June, 1861.

WENDELL PHILLIPS.

(On the subject of the Emancipation.)

[The article continues with various paragraphs and sections discussing political and social issues of the time, including emancipation and various events and figures of historical significance.]

[The text concludes with a final historical or political statement, possibly concluding with a call to action or reflection on the events discussed.]
THE LIBERATOR.

MANIFESTO OF THE FREE COLORADO.

Manifesto.

The following is presented to the public by the citizens of the Free State of Colorado:

We, the undersigned, do hereby declare our adherence to the principles of the American Anti-Slavery Society, and are determined to resist by force the attempts of the slave power to enslave us.

In token of our resistance, we will not pay the taxes levied for the support of the government, and will not submit to the laws that are enacted by the Congress of the United States.

We hereby appeal to the friends of liberty throughout the world for aid and support.

We are determined to maintain our freedom, and will not be intimidated by the threats of the slave power.

We are a free people, and will not be made slaves.

Signed:

[Signatures]

LIBERTY OF THE OLD STATE.

MANIFESTO.

The following is presented to the public by the citizens of the Free State of Colorado:

We, the undersigned, do hereby declare our adherence to the principles of the American Anti-Slavery Society, and are determined to resist by force the attempts of the slave power to enslave us.

In token of our resistance, we will not pay the taxes levied for the support of the government, and will not submit to the laws that are enacted by the Congress of the United States.

We hereby appeal to the friends of liberty throughout the world for aid and support.

We are determined to maintain our freedom, and will not be intimidated by the threats of the slave power.

We are a free people, and will not be made slaves.

Signed:

[Signatures]