Refuge of Oppression.

Abolitionist Society.

The war viewed by a true democrat.

The recent events in the Southern states show how far the war has progressed. The emancipation of the slaves has been a step toward the destruction of the system of slavery in the South. The Union army has been successful in many battles, and has captured many important cities. The war is now in its second year, and it is hoped that it will end in the abolition of slavery.

The war and slavery.

During the recent peace negotiations at Norfolk, the Union government has expressed its determination to continue the war until slavery is abolished. The Union army has been successful in many battles, and has captured many important cities. The war is now in its second year, and it is hoped that it will end in the abolition of slavery.

The cause of freedom in America.

The cause of freedom in America is advanced by the Union army's success in many battles, and by the capture of many important cities. The war has been going on for two years, and it is hoped that it will end in the abolition of slavery.

Prisoners in Practice.

The war is now in its second year, and it is hoped that it will end in the abolition of slavery. The Union army has been successful in many battles, and has captured many important cities. The war has been going on for two years, and it is hoped that it will end in the abolition of slavery.
AUGUST 19.

THE LIBERATOR.

NEW YORK, August 19, 1861.

We have been asked to say a word about the adventure which took place at Fairmount, on the 16th, in which Col. Bidwell and his men were taken prisoners. The village of Fairmount is situated on the left bank of the Delaware, about eight miles above the town of Stroudsburg. It is a small place, consisting of a few houses and a large ferry, and is the terminus of the railroad from the South. The men of the 15th Wisconsin, who had beenDetail...